

The General Consulate of Greece in Jerusalem, The Greek Women in Palestine Association, The Greek Union Jerusalem, and the Palestinian-Greek Friendship Association have the pleasure of taking you into a journey of Greek music and dances, where one of our most popular and well-known musical instruments –Bouzouki – is played by our prominent Manolis Pappos, a number of traditional songs are performed by our well recognized singer Martha Frintzila, and a unique selection of Greek folklore dances are presented by our distinctive Alonaki dance group.

Greek traditional dance - Alonaki

Chalkida is the main city of the island of Evia and Alonaki is an active cultural organization in that city. It's main goal is to preserve the Greek folklore and tradition and to link its unique heritage with other traditions of the world. The group will present folklore dances from all over Greece and areas of Greek heritage such as: Trace, Macedonia, Kapadokia, Pontos, the islands, Crete and Peloponnesus.

In Ramallah they will be joined by "Funoun popular troupe" In Hebron by "Child Happiness Center dabka group" In Bethlehem by "The Luthrin School folklore dance group - Beit Sahour"

Martha Frintzila:

traditional and contemporary music

A journey through traditional music and melodies from all over Greece, including some song of Manos Hajidakis and old urban songs with the renowned Greek singer Martha Frintzila.

Antonis Maratos
condrabass, oud

Vassilis Matzoukis
guitar, percussion

Martha Frintzila
voice

The group will be joined by students of Edward Said National Conservatory of Music for some Greek and Arabic songs.

Pappos-Razeli:

Popular music-bouzouki

Manolis Pappos is one of the most significant Greek bouzouki players of our time, along with two young musicians he will perform some Greek music specials. In a favorite combination of Greek popular band: bouzouki, accordeon and guitar, together with the wonderful voice of Afentoula Razeli, they will present a number of beloved Greek songs mainly of composers Mikis Theodorakis, Vassilis Tsitsanis, Manolis Hiotis up to the younger generation as Vangelis Korakakis.

Manolis Pappos

bouzouki

Afentoula Razeli

voice

Eva Atmatzidou

guitar

Aggelika Papanikolaou

accordeon

The group will be joined by students of Edward Said National Conservatory of Music for some Greek and Arabic songs.

Exhibitions:

-Photos and items of Greek folklore

-Artworks of women artist and Palestinian handicraft organized by the Jerusalem Women's Parliament of Al Quds University Community Development Center.

At the venues of the events.

Special thanks to:

Nablus the Culture
Child Happiness Center Hebron

Bethlehem Peace Center
Center for Jerusalem Studies-Al Quds university-old city Jerusalem
Ramallah Cultural Palace